

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

This paper introduces a design of a series of six modular computerized ciphers which can be performed sequentially and in a number of rounds, to form an encryption scheme greater than the sum of its parts.